

TERMS & CONDITIONS

By submitting the application form you are agreeing to the following terms and conditions:

- Pay £80 per child as a deposit on registering (if your booking cannot be confirmed due to the course being full, your deposit will be refunded).
- Pay the full balance by 01 June 2023.
- All participating families must be current members of their National Suzuki Association.
- Take full responsibility for your children while on The Midlands Arts Centre site.
- Authorise the organisers to use photographic and video images of your child or children for recognition, training, or promotional purposes.
- The fact that concerts may be filmed and publicly published on YouTube. For privacy and protection, only the performers first name will be announced and comments will be moderated.
- Permit the organisers to hold the personal information submitted in your booking for the purposes of organising and running the course and as reference for future courses. Completion of the registration form will be taken as the express consent of you and all the members of your group for the organisers to hold and process this personal data.

Cancellation Policy

Deposits paid are non-refundable. If you need to cancel your place, please get in touch as soon as possible. No refunds will be made for cancellations after 01 June 2023. You may wish to make your own arrangements for cancellation insurance.